Five months of text messages between anti-Trump FBI agents Peter Strzok and Lisa Page have been lost, according to a Friday disclosure from the Justice Department to the Senate Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs Committee (HSCAC), as reported by the Associated Press and the Daily Caller.

Peter Strzok and Lisa Page

In a letter from Stephen Boyd, the assistant attorney general for legislative affairs at the Justice Department, to Wisconsin Sen. Ron Johnson, the chairman of HSCAC, the assistant AG writes that "The Department wants to bring to your attention that the FBI's technical system for retaining text messages sent and received on FBI mobile devices failed to preserve text messages for Mr. Strzok and Ms. Page."

Regardless of one's political, religious, spiritual, philosophical, ethnic, or non-interest persuasion, it is simply impolite for federal agencies to continually demonstrate corruption, this time under the guise of "technological failure".

There may be a price to pay.
